Sir

I have the honor to forward, herewith, a memorial addressed to Her Highness the Maharani Regent by Linga alias Lingappa, Appellant in Criminal appeal no. 120 of 1897-98 on the file of this Court, together with a translation of the Petition.

The entire records of the case are forwarded for reference and obliging return when no longer required.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
your most obedient Servant.

Registrar

To

Her Highness the Maharani
Regent, Mysore

The humble memorial of Linga alias Lingappa, Convict No. 5360 undergoing sentence of transportation for life in the Central Jail at Bangalore.

The memorialist was convicted and sentenced to transportation for life by the Sessions Judge, Nagar Division in Chitaldroog Sessions Case No.
4 of 1897-98. Thereupon the memorialist preferred an appeal to the Chief Court in Criminal appeal No. 120 of 1897-98 on the

of that Court but that Court upheld the conviction and Sentence passed upon him and dismissed the appeal.

The Memorialist humbly prays that Her Highness the Maharani Regent considering that the Memorialist is innocent, that he is a man of large family consisting of 8 children, and that ~~that~~ he is above 50 years of age, may be graciously pleased to order his release.

The Chief Court has dismissed the prisoner's appeal with the following remarks:—

"The appellant now admits that that it was he who killed the deceased Bukki Kenchi, his wife's sister. His plea is that robbers had come to his house and that he used his sickle in order to protect his property and thus killed the deceased. The story is improbable in itself and no attempt has been made to prove that the house was attacked by robbers. Moreover the number of wounds inflicted on the deceased shows that more violence was used than was necessary even in the case of robbers having come to the house
